

Aging as Art: A Juried Photography Show

Rules, Terms, and Conditions

Council on Aging – Southern California (COASC) invites anyone in the United States who is passionate about photography to enter the Aging as Art: A Juried Photography Show. By submitting an entry, each contestant agrees to the Rules, Terms, and Conditions of the competition and states that he or she is 18 years old or older.

SECTION 1—WHO MAY ENTER

All amateur or professional photographers residing in the United States who are at least 18 years of age as of the date of image submission are eligible. Employees of COASC are not eligible for a prize.

SECTION 2—WHAT TO ENTER

Open to all photographic imagery that can be defined as “How do you perceive aging today?” as interpreted by the entrant. One subject in the composition must be a senior, which is broadly defined as an individual 65 and over.

Entries may originate in any format including, but not limited to digital files, digital prints, color transparencies, color prints, or black and white prints — so long as they are submitted electronically.

To be eligible for any category, a photograph must have been shot by the entrant after January 1, 2020.

Previously published material for which non-exclusive rights were granted may be entered as long as you still maintain the right to grant COASC a license (see Your Rights Section B).

For a photo in which a person is recognizable, you must secure a model release from the subject or, in the case of a minor, the subject’s parent or guardian and be prepared to provide it to COASC upon request if your photo is selected. You do not need to submit it at the time of entry. Model Release

Photos that violate or infringe upon another person's rights, including but not limited to copyright, are ineligible.

Each submitted photograph, in its entirety, must be a single work of original material taken by the competition entrant. By entering the competition, entrant warrants that the submitted photograph(s) is an original work created solely by the entrant, that the photograph does not infringe on the copyrights, trademarks, moral rights, rights of privacy/publicity or intellectual property rights of any person or entity, and that no other party has any right, title, claim or interest in the photograph.

All photographs should accurately reflect the subject matter and the scene as it appeared. Photos that have been digitally altered beyond standard optimization (removal of dust, cropping, reasonable adjustments to exposure, color and contrast, etc.) will be disqualified. Multiple exposures that have been combined to produce a single “High Dynamic Range” image are acceptable. Images that do not meet these requirements may or may not be judged at the sole discretion of the COASC's Panel of Jurors. (Listing of Panel of Jurors can be found at coasc.org).

There are no restrictions on eligibility regarding the location the photograph was taken. The photographs entered must not, in the sole discretion of the COASC, contain sexually explicit, nude, obscene, violent, defamatory, or otherwise objectionable content. Entries deemed inappropriate will be ineligible.
